Jury

The jury will be composed of IN-SONORA team members and professionals in the world of sound and interactive art. An undetermined number of pieces of each format will be selected, taking into account the quality and viability of the proposals.

The jury reserves the right to request more information about the work of the participants, if necessary, for a proper assessment.

The verdict of the jury will be announced on July 15, 2011. The list of the elected participants will be sent by email to all registered participants and posted on the web: www.in-sonora.com.

IN-SONORA commitment:

The IN-SONORA association works every year to develop and carry out an exhibition of international and interactive sound art in the city of Madrid.

With this objective, it carries out different tasks:

- The launching of an international public call, widespread in all the media and among its collaborators.
- The reception and study of all the projects received by the Jury selecting the optimum number of works.
- Contact with different cultural spaces in Madrid that will host the exhibition
- Exhibition coordination and the designing of the general program and showrooms, taking into account the needs of each work.
- Basic economic support will be given to artists participating with installations and live events.
- Seeking grants (support) to improve the initial conditions of artists, staff and equipment so as to increase the commitments outlined here.
- Press and broadcasting of the entire program on the website www.in-sonora.com; in a printed publication and among professional networks, bulletins and keeping in contact with the media.

Technical equipment. IN-SONORA has an assembly technician who studies all the installations and gives facilities to the artists and a sound technician who attends live events.

Materials. IN-SONORA has at its disposal basic technical equipment for live events:

- 4 amplifiers M-AUDIO Studiophile BX8A Deluxe 130w + 4 bases
- Mixing console 14 channels Mackie 1402-VLZ3 + mixing console 12 channels Yamaha 12 MG124c.
- 2 voice microphones Behringer XM8500, 1 microphone Shure 58, + 3 feet of microphone

All equipment that doesn't appear on this list must be provided by the artist.

Artist's contribution

- The works presented must be technically achieved already. The artists are responsible for providing the technical means to properly present the works during the exhibition.
- Artists will accept the space assigned to them in the festival and collaborate on the possible adaptation of their work.
- IN-SONORA cannot afford transportation fees, insurances, per diem, etc
- The selected artists will release the exhibition rights to IN-SONORA, whether this be images, writings or documentation produced during the exhibition, only to be used for the promotion of the project and not for any commercial purposes. Under the regulations stated in Creative Commons By-NC-SA.
- The artists with installations will be in charge of the assembly and dismantling of their piece. Those with events must be present on rehearsal days and also deal with the assembly and dismantling of the stage.
- Complete all the required fields. Those that can provide further information can do so by using the online form located at www.in-sonora.com.
- Enthusiasm, commitment and ability to work the IN-SONORA team, since they have put forth the effort to make this event possible.

If you participate as an artist in this event you are acknowledging and agreeing to the terms and conditions outlined previously in these guidelines. In the case that the artist does not comply with the requirements hereby detailed within this document, his/her application will be dismissed.
