

IN-SONORA is back in Madrid.

This sound and interactive art show takes place in several cultural spaces around the city between the 2nd and the 15th March 2016.

Installations, live performances, workshops, listening pieces, Twitter Residencies... IN-SONORA offers a varied programme that can be seen and heard in some of the best-known cultural centres in Madrid, such as the La Casa Encendida, Sala El Águila, CentroCentro, IED – Istituto Europeo di Design Madrid, Medialab-Prado, Swinton Gallery, galería Alegría and Cruce.

The goal of the biennial show is to give visibility to local and international artists, supporting experimental, contemporary art proposals in which sound and interactivity are the main elements of the piece.

In this 9th edition, the show will feature a total of 38 proposals, both from individual artists and collectives, from 14 different countries. These are the selected artists:
